

There is no difference in quality between the baptism with the Holy Ghost and sanctification. They are both holiness. Sanctification is the Lord Jesus Christ crowning of your heart and the baptism with the Holy Spirit is His power upon you. It is all holiness. It makes you more like Jesus. It is Jesus in justification, Jesus in sanctification and Jesus in the baptism with the Holy Ghost. If we follow Jesus, we will never have any other spirit but the Spirit of holiness.

Every man or woman that gets sanctified gets the witness of the Spirit. But when you enter into the Holy of Holies, you get the great Shekina glory upon you and cloven tongues of fire, and speak as the Spirit gives utterance, and the pillar of fire guides you every day of your life.

When the Holy Ghost comes in, He fills you with love and joy and satisfaction. You have something when you have the baptism with the Holy Ghost. You have Him. People are hunting for blessings, but if you get the Blessor, you have Him all the time. You want not simply a blessing but the Holy Ghost. When He comes down, He will keep a fire in your heart. He is a person, He comes to lead and guide into all truth.

The baptism of the Spirit is the in-filling of the personal Holy Ghost, which is the earnest of the Spirit. Then God gives us the authority to do the same work that Jesus did. We find where men and women have received this baptism with the Spirit there is a revival going on just as on the day of Pentecost. That is what the baptism with the Holy Spirit means—a continual revival.

When you get the baptism, you have a street in your soul called Thanksgiving Street, and you have an Amen Street and a Glory Street. Thanksgiving and the voice of melody is in your soul. When the Holy Ghost comes in, He comes singing, preaching and talking. It is because the church has brought forth the "men child." Then we go on to perfection, forgetting the things which are behind and pressing forward to the things that are before.

The Lord God says He will make you witnesses unto the uttermost part of the earth. When He sent His disciples to the last tribes of Israel, He sent them to them

The God of Pentecost has never lost any power. He stands to baptize man and women with the Holy Ghost today just as He did 1900 years ago. Every worker that is going out to stand for Christ ought to be baptized with the Holy Ghost and fire. It is for you as soon as you get light upon it.

Keep your eyes on Jesus and not on the manifestations, not seeking to get some great thing more than somebody else. The Lord God wants you just as humble as a baby, looking for Him to fill you with more of God and power. If you get your eyes on manifestations and signs you are liable to get a counterfeit, but what you want to seek is more holiness, more of God.

The Holy Spirit has been in the world ever since God created it, for we read in Genesis 1:1, And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters." This precious Spirit was with Enoch. He was with Elijah. He was with Daniel. He was with God's priests and prophets, and they spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit, because they had His presence when they were sent out on a mission, for Jesus empowered them Himself while on earth to cast out demons and heal the sick and raise the dead. The Spirit was upon them for special work, but He was not in them, for He is not to be contained by man. He is truth whom the world cannot receive, but He is truth. It seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him, but ye know Him for He dwelleth with you and shall be in you." (John: 14: 17.) But when Jesus Christ took His place in heaven on the right hand of God, then He poured out His Spirit and gave us another Comforter that He should abide with us forever, to empower and to lead us into all truth.

The Holy Spirit talks with us like a companion. Jesus was the Comforter of His disciples while He was here in the flesh; but He said when He was about to leave them, "I will send Him to you, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever. . . . It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I do not go, the Comforter will not come unto you, but if I depart, I will send Him unto you. When He the Spirit of truth is come, He will guide you into all truth. . . . He will glorify me, for all that the Father has given Him are in the Son, and the Father will glorify Him in us, because we have borne in the hearts of men and women. It was the day of Pentecost. He came to abide. He is the abiding Comforter. O how He has comforted and will comfort our hearts and home in our hearts. Everyone can receive the personal Holy Ghost in their hearts, for He says, "I will pour out of My Spirit upon"

The baptism of the Holy Ghost comes on the sanctified, cleansed life. After the vessel is cleansed and made holy, it is meet for the Master's use. Blessed Holy Name be praised, that there shall be no ill purged vessel from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor sanctified and meet for the Master's use prepared unto every good work." (II Tim. 2, 21.) In seeking this baptism, if you realize that you are sanctified and cleansed by the blood that cleanseth from all unrighteousness, then you are prepared for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in thanksgiving and faith. He will come in and fill His temple from head to foot. This Holy Ghost is love, power, joy, blessing, wisdom and holiness. He will guide you and open the Scriptures to you.

JESUS, O HOW SWEET THE NAME!

"Jesus, oh, how sweet the name!
Jesus, every day the same,
Jesus, let all saints proclaim Its worthy praise forever—"

Is the beautiful hymn the salutes sang for me three hours the night I received my baptism last (June 15th, about 12 o'clock).
Oh, praise the name of Jesus! I sang to until the Precious Holy Ghost took my tongue and spoke for Himself. Oh, bravo Oh, praise Him, who is the Father of God for His wonderful love! I wish I could describe to you what Jesus is to me.
Therefore, I thought I knew how to love Him better before, I thought I knew Him, but never in such a way as I do now. Oh, it is so sweet to know Him, to know Him, to know Him Him by the hour and let Him talk to me.
I cannot tell it. There are not words in the English language that can describe what Jesus is to me. I cannot begin to tell all as my time is too limited, but will do the

Then He showed me the Word that "After ye have done the whole will of God, ye have need of patience, that ye might obtain the promise." I felt my need of that for I was anxious. Oh, we just have to die to everything and everybody and see no one save Jesus. Praise His dear name.
 How blessed it is to reach the place where we see Him only.

Well, the Lord showed the Asuna street people that they were to have a camp-meeting, so they came out June 1st. Miss Johnson and I rented a tent and came also. During all this time I knew the Lord was with me, and I also knew the old devil was trying with all the forces of hell to cheat me out of the blessing. He presented every thing imaginable to my mind, but, praise God! He brought me through more than conquer. I just tell this for your encouragement. Remember, when the old devil comes to you, but the Satan presents anything to you, just tell him you are under the blood. Just plead the blood, and he will flee.

July 1st before going to the meeting, I had a blessed time talking to the Lord, and just felt sure I was going to get through. I was about to altar; the power of God was upon me but I was not saying "Hallelujah!" right at my side, and that was so unnatural for quiet little Miss June Jones. I couldn't help but think she must be getting jealous. I was not sure I was under the power and, blessed God, she did get through. Had a wonderful experience. Both sang and spoke in tongues. Oh, how I love to praise the Lord! I have a word remember when the power of God is upon you, even a thought will intercede with the workings of the Spirit. Oh, He is so wonderful! He is so powerful! He is so loving, keep your eyes centered upon Jesus, and when the devil presents a thought, just rebuke him and plead the

The next night I was under the power of the Spirit, and almost spoke, but some one came into the room who did not feel right toward the sister that was praying for me, and the Spirit was so grieved within me that I just cried and cried. Not I, but the Spirit grieved. Oh, such grief, it was heart-rending. Oh, how careful people should be not to grieve the Holy Spirit. Before I go any further I must tell you that I went up to the altar that night the Spirit began to shake my head, then my body, and gradually and gently laid me out on the floor. The Spirit did this three different times. At times it shook my whole body, and I was for a long conscious all the time, but my thoughts were gone. Oh, I knew He was having His way in me.

thing, for He had my hand all the time. Praise His precious name! I said, "Yes Jesus, yes," and I even said, "I want You to talk for me," and that is when I spoke in another tongue. I feel that I fall when I try to write it. Words cannot express it. Wonderful! Wonderful! He spoke through me for some time. Remember, I was conscious all this time, but it was Jesus and I who were conversing. The world was shut out, self was shut out, and I was lost in God.

Oh, how wonderful to let God take every thought captive, and not only your thoughts but your body too. Praise Him, how many things shock most of the time, and my hands went so fast. I sang just the chorus "Jesus, oh, how sweet the Name!" and the saints sang it all the time, too; but I lost sight of the saints. I could hear the strains and it seemed like a heavenly host praising God, helping to send the angels to glory. I could not help but sing. This has been the most wonderful experience of my life. Oh, how could any one doubt God? That God shall give you your baptism soon is my prayer. Seek earnestly. Let no worldly care cheat you out of God's wonderful gift.—(Letter to the saints, 1844, pp. 10-11. This has been slightly altered for publication.)—Good Tidings.

"I never was so determined as now to stand in all the fullness of this great Gospel. My life is in His hands to do just as He will with me. I can say from my heart, I count not my life dear unto myself; and there's something down in my soul that says:

"Though earth and hell my way oppose, Jehovah's mightier than my foe."

I bless as praise God that the Holy Ghost fell in dear Los Angeles, Oh, and it took me in, Oh, how hungry I was, and how the Spirit of God came down, and I was and listened to dear Brother Seymour expound the Word of God. This is that when the prophet Joel said should come and I was there, and I was there, and I try innumerable and adding there, Oh, the glory of the anointing that abideth. It is the glory of the anointing that abideth radiating before God, in holiness, in fear, radiating day and night in the law of God that keep this wonderful anointing. Few should come, and few will continue to pay the price to keep it; but by His grace and power, I mean to keep it if I all but should be able to keep it, and I mean to for one moment aside. I've taken the narrow row way. O I love it. I mean to go through O how I love Jesus. I never loved Him as I do now. His word never was so sweet to my heart as it is now. His love never was so dear to my soul as it is now. I never loved Him as I do now. His word never was so sweet to my heart as it is now. His love never was so dear to my soul as it is now. I never loved Him as I do now. His word never was so sweet to my heart as it is now. His love never was so dear to my soul as it is now.

How it thrills my heart to stand in the presence of those that are standing true.
As never before we are going to see the mighty signs follow the preaching of the Gospel. We are going to see the power and in no way compromise, preach the word and let the Holy Ghost magnify Jesus Christ. We are going to see the power of very old does thrill with the thought of what God is going to do among a clean people. O I want to be spotless and have the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Gospel is going like wildfire. It shall sweep everything before it, compromisers and all that stand in the way. We are going ahead to encourage our hearts while the light is on. The blessed Jesus is so precious to us that we are going to do great things for him. He gives such a great desire my poor soul that all is well, and O the comfort coming after the storm." — Florence Hartley

The Lord wants these "people in these days" that will make the very highest consecration to God. He wants us to step up to the mark of the highest consecration. It is the time when we ought to be looking for the greatest revival the world has ever had because the time is drawing nigh when the Son of Man shall come, and shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you; whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God has by divers ways in old and new prophets signified by his Holy prophets since the world began. Now, beloved, if we come together in unity and love and look to God, He can do all things. He can do all things as He did to the Philippian jail and break the bands. He wants His people to have faith in God that He may do a mighty
