The Soon Coming of Christ

His disciples came to Jesus to show Him the buildings of the temple.

And He said to them, "See ye not all these things? Verily, I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.' Is that true? Can you find those stones of the temple which they saw, and to which Christ referred? Secular history tells us how and when they were thrown down and also tells us of the destruction of Jerusalem. There were other events that Christ told His disciples were to follow, after the stones were thrown down.

They were great stones, weighty stones and they looked like permanent fixtures, but according to the word of Christ they were to be thrown down.

If the prophecy concerning these stones, which were apparently permanent and unlikely to be removed, was fulfilled, and if these stones have been removed -and the certainty of the thing cannot be questioned by anyone—so equally sure must be the fulfillment of the other events spoken of at the same time by Christ.

Portentous appearings of false Christs! False alarms! And every false alarm weakening the faith of those of little faith, and confirming the doubters and scoffers who say, "Where is the promise of His coming?"

The continuation of wars, earthquakes, pestilences, and famines, which were to precede the greater tribulation, has hardened men's hearts and they take these things as a matter of course, just as much as the rising and setting of the sun and the changing of the seasons. Instead of taking it to heart and learning the lessons taught by Christ concerning the nations fighting against on e another and the portent of it, men are seeking to stop the wars and establish a world peace.

The wars, however, will continue until Christ Himself comes and does away with the cause of wars, thereby stopping war. From whence come wars? "Come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?" "Ye bite and devour one another." The war in nations comes from the same cause as the war in the individual. When individuals are changed, nations will change and wars will cease.

"For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." Matt. 24:27. Every time a thunderstorm occurs it is a reminder of the coming, the outshin-ing of the Son of man.

There has been no league of nations established to do away with the lightning shining forth. And every time it shines forth it is a portent of the coming of the Son of man.

The Lord said, "For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together." Matt. 24:28, Lulterworth translation. There is no society established for making vultures vegetarians, for they still seek the carcass. And so at the coming of Christ the fowls that fly in the heavens will be ready at the signal to come from the east and west, from the north and south, to accept the invitation, "Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God: that ye may eat the flesh of kings . . . of captains . . . of mighty men." Rev. 19:17, 18.

The angels of heaven inaugurated Christ's birth in Bethlehem with a message of peace and a king on earth inaugurated it with a welter of blood. But at this inauguration, kings, like bats, will take to the holes and hide from the presence of Him who is King of kings and Lord of lords.

Desolate Jerusalem, Jerusalem that is templeless at this present day, points to the fact that there is a King coming. There is a fulfillment of the other parts of His prophecy made on the Mount of Olives, on which mount His feet will once again stand-those feet that were pierced by men but glorified by the Father. The iron from the earth pierced those feet, but His feet on that mount will divide the earth asunder (Continued on Page Five)

OLIVET'S BELL-TOWER

On the highest summit of the Mount of Olives there stands this bell-tower. It should be a consoling reminder to every child of God that some day-and we believe that day is very, very near-our blessed Christ is coming back to earth to reign, and that He shall stand upon this very mount.

The sure Word of prophecy declares: "Behold, the day of the Lord cometh . . . I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle . . . Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations . . . And His feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives . . . and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst . . . And the Lord shall be king over all the earth." Zech. 14:1-4, 9.

He says to us, "Surely I come quickly." Does your heart responds. "Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus"?

Responsibilities of a Preacher

An Ordination Sermon by Ernest S. Williams

We have seen considerable change in the ministry of the Pentecostal movement, a change that a good many have not been aware of. To some there must be a new appraisal if they are to properly fill their places in this ministry. Some have become discouraged. They point back to the time when their ministry was in demand and lament that it is not so now. Some feel that it is aging years that has closed the doors for them, and that a new generation is taking their places. Among these, some are suffering from the passing of time, but more are hindered because of lack of application, and because they have not kept step with the progress of the work of the land.

Take our Sunday Schools-for one to be a successful pastor at the present means that one must give considerable thought and study to Sunday School activities, to those who teach, and to those who supervise. Teachers ought to be trained. The pastor must study to show himself approved not only in the proclaiming of the Word of God, but also in directing the various activities connected with the advancement of God's kingdom. To make us efficient here, tools are being put at our command which many of us did not have at our command twenty years ago. We commend to those who are being ordained, or licensed, or receiving exhorter's papers, that they study, take notes, glean from every reliable source, to make themselves more efficient. We solicit the co-operation of all the deacons and officers of the churches, and all the members that they seek to bring up the church to the greatest efficiency possible. Nonprogressive ministers, and nonprogressive persons in office in the church can greatly impede progress. When such become entrenched in their positions, to make a change often greatly offends not only them, but their friends, and perhaps their relatives, so for the sake of individuals, the entire progress of the Sunday School and Christian church is sometimes hindered, and, in some instances, thwarted. It is a mistake to allow deference to individuals to stand in the way of the progress of the work of the Lord.

The youth of our community is one of the most fertile soils for effective work for Jesus Christ, and for the building up of the Christian church. Recently the speaker was sent to Toledo, Ohio. He arrived there early in the morning. Having interviewed the person he was sent to see he returned to the railroad station. There he saw a rack in which were some papers. He took one of the papers and began to read. It was the "Sunday Visitor," a publication of the Catholic Church. There he read an article on religious conditions in the United States. It told of the time when America was a Christian country, when both Catholics and Protestants attended church and received careful religious instruction. But it declared the United States of America could no longer be called a Christian nation when eighty per cent of the population is entirely without church affiliation or religious training. That made a profound impression upon us. Is it possible that today, taking our nation in the aggregate, eighty per cent, old and young, are entirely unchurched? That means that there is a great need of revival, not only an emotional revival, if we may use that term to describe getting people to God and filled with the Holy Ghost, but there is a need of a proper, sanctified, intellectual revival, that brings understanding of the Word of God, and consciousness of responsibility for uprightness and integrity. If such a great number are untouched, one of the most vital fields to enter in the community is the field of childhood and youth.

Let us make our Sunday Schools as luminous and interesting as possible, and then see to it that we "go into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in." Wonderful helps are now provided for us by our own denomination. There are also many valuable helps obtainable from the outside. Let us use them.

But here bear with us in a word of caution. There are others who are as fully equipped with helps as we are, but they are failing in the great essential of leading the children and youth to a definite, personal knowledge of God. Because of this when the youth arrive at a certain age they drop out of the church and are lost in the world. It is not enough that we be able to interest the children intellectually and instruct the youth. We must keep the fire of God among us, and use the helps as a means of bringing them to the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. That is one great feature of this great work in which we are engaged. We are thankful for all the advance steps being taken, and believe that, by the grace of God, we can continue to advance. A great opportunity lies before us.

Leaving consideration of Sunday School possibilities, may we consider the responsibility of our public ministry. One has said that the pulpit is a minister's throne. The pulpit should always be a throne, a place of authority and power. The Christian minister is to rule for God, remembering that he must give account, not flinchingly, not fearfully, but confidently, to One higher than he, the One who sits on the throne of the Eternal. While the pulpit is the minister's throne, it must ever be a throne of grace. Do not misuse your authority. Do not follow your own carnal spirit. Do not try to force others into line when you need being lined up yourself. Do not say, "I told the people the truth and I was uncompromising," when your spirit was probably as bitter as gall. Yes, you can tell people the truth and be uncompromising, but make it so unpalatable that even Gabriel would not want to receive it. May God keep us on bended knees in brokenness of spirit, in the consciousness of the fear of God. May we never deteriorate to that low estate that would permit us, since we are blessed with ability to talk, to take our Bibles and go to our pulpits with our own souls unchastened and unsubdued.

Not long ago a certain minister boasted that he frequently made it a practice to go to his pulpit entirely unprepared. would then ask the congregation what they would like him to speak concerning. Some one in the congregation would quote a text and he would then talk from that text. He thought he was very impressive and apt in the Scripture, but we thought, "You are a man who has more tongue than salvation." It is better to get something from heaven than to trust to a potshot from a congregation. We do not ignore the fact that there are occasions when inspiration might come from a congregation, but let us always remember, we are not in the pulpit to show off our wits and ability, and-sometimes our nonsense. The minister is the servant of God, speaking from a throne.

Be careful about your words. Let others talk carelessly if they choose. Remember who you are, Were the President of our nation to talk as lightly as some of us, people would soon think him not the right person to be President. When he speaks, his every word is weighed by those who hear, and his purposes are judged accordingly. Not long ago when the N. R. A. was ruled out of existence by the Supreme Court, the President said, "We are reverting to the horse and buggy days." Had we said that, no one would have thought anything about it, but it was spoken by the President, and he hasn't heard the last of it yet. Just a little expression—but how his antagonists have capitalized it. And why? Because he spoke from his presidential throne, and the American people attach great importance to his words.

In the ministry members may talk into your ear, but be careful what you say in return. You are a minister of the gospel. Too many have spoiled a good ministry in a day because when they have stepped down from their throne in the pulpit, and have come into personal contacts, they have been altogether too free and careless in their expressions to Mr. Jones and Mrs. Brown. These people detect the breach with disappointment, and soon they are repeating what has been said, and things are in a turmoil. When this has taken place a minister might just as well pick up his bag and go because his ministry has been killed by his words.

But we must return to the thought of our preaching. We must not only preach with authority, but with the grace of God in our hearts. We must preach with simplicity. Some like to be profound—so profound that neither they nor any one else can understand what they are talking about. We are to feed the sheep and lambs, and we do well when we go about with a bucket full of good food and say, "Take it and eat it. It doeth good like a medicine." And yet we can be profound. Simplicity does not necessarily mean superficiality. You can be deep, yet simple. Don't tell the people, "I am going to give you something deep this morning." Let them judge as to how deep it is. We have heard ministers so announce when about all the depth we could see was that of their own mental confusion.

Now for a word about ignorance. We believe God does not want us to have a shallow ministry. There are depths in the Word of God. Evangelism is all right, but we cannot build character and sturdy Christians on evangelism alone. We must get into the Word of God and teach the people things that will establish character. The real fact is that the Bible is the deepest book that has ever been written. It deals with mysteries, yet it has a beautiful simplicity. The Christian minister is ever dealing with mysteries most profound. God, salvation, eternal hope, and immortality are profound truths. But we can give them out so simply that the child will know that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." May we seek to be as harnless and simple as doves in expounding those truths to the people.

We oftentimes regret that we are not more simple. It is one of the greatest en-couragements when one says, "You made it so simple that I could understand it," Seek to be simple, but not shallow. Seek to be profound in bringing out truths, but try not to seem profound. The Lord can take us from the farm, the shop, or from wheresoever we may be found, in order that we may minister to the common people. The Lord Jesus, who brought the profound truths of Holy Writ to the people of the New Testament times, clothed His teaching in such simplicity that the common people heard Him gladly. He talked of foxes and dogs, of chickens and sheep, of fish and nets, of the sower, of grapevines and mountains. He talked about things that people understood, and applied the truths in a way that they were able to lay hold on. A profound minister of the gospel, a man of much education, was able to take a congregation of children and discourse with them for three quarters of an hour on such subjects as the "Atonement" or the "Godhead" or the "Deity" and hold those children spellbound. He had simplicity with profundity, a wonderful gift. May we pray for utterance that we may be profound, yet gloriously simple.

May we now consider earnestness. Some can become very earnest in the pulpit who have not been earnest before they came to the pulpit. To be successful our earnestness must be an earnestness of our life. Earnestness in our private study as we search the Word of God, earnestness to get from God what He would have us minister to His flock, earnestness in our prayer life so that we come from our prayer chamber and place of study to our pulpit to speak with earnestness not assumed but actual. This will put into our voice the essence of genuine earnestness, the expression of what we really are and not the mere product of thirty minutes of speaking earnestly. As servants of God be earnest.

One thought more. Preach in faith. Expect God to bless. The Word of God builds up faith and accomplishes things. "How shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent." "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." If we only have faith in God's Word and in our message because it is God's Word, His Word will not return unto Him void. It will develop character and bring forth blessing. Remember, our message is often doing good when we are not conscious that it is.

Christianity is moral and spiritual rather than intellectual. This requires that our preaching be moral and spiritual rather than intellectual. If we miss this truth, we make a fatal error. All around us are men whose education undoubtedly outstrips our own. They bring forth intellectual discourses, but their messages fall lifeless to the earth, their churches are largely empty, and their intellectuality is fruitless. Intellectuality is good when it is enveloped in the flame of spirituality. We would be happy to possess more of it. But when Jesus came into the world, He came into a moral world that was deep in sin, and in bondage to the devil, into a world that was out of tune with the holiness of God. He came to save those that were morally lost, and spiritually disconnected with the Almighty, that they might be restored to fellowship and renewed spiritually. If the unlearned fishermen could bring them God's message, we can also, even if our edu-cation be imperfect. We have a glorious ministry to a guilty world. It is our calling to win men to a Saviour's love, that they may be filled with the Holy Ghost, and united in fellowship with our Heavenly Father.

The world lies before us. It becomes our parish. May the blessing and anointing of our Father in heaven abide on us until Jesus calls us to our everlasting reward.

Your Opportunity

If Jesus could feed a thousand people with a loaf of bread, what might He do with you if you were turned over to Him, as was the bread?

Helping One Another

One day a man was fishing for black bass near the shore of a lake. Nearby he saw a large black snake hanging head downward from a bush and swinging to and fro. At first he thought it was admiring itself in the water. But suddenly a little chipmunk ran from under a log nearby. Quick as a flash the snake seized it by the head, and at the same time lost its hold on the bush and dropped into the water. It quickly swam ashore, dragging the young chipmunk with it, and deliberately began swallowing the chipmunk without trying to crush it.

The chipmunk's head had disappeared when another chipmunk jumped on the snake's back, and off again, in a flash. Then another chipmunk came, and still another. On and off they jumped, striking their sharp teeth into the snake's body, giving him a terrible wound, then getting away so quickly that they avoided a stroke of his tail. Finally, with a fling of its head, the snake got rid of the chipmunk it had been swallowing, and glided away.

That is the way Christians ought to help one another when one is being attacked by the enemy. The devil is likened to a serpent, and often he succeeds in getting Christians trapped. But if other Christians will come to the rescue, fighting the enemy with the weapon of faith and prayer, he will have to let go and glide away. God has given us these weapons, and He wants us to use them to help others who have been caught by Satan.

Take Time to Wait on God

In this age of rush and hurry and busy activity everywhere, if we are not careful, we shall allow ourselves to become too much absorbed in the doing, even of things that are legitimate or that may seem to be absolutely necessary, to wait upon God. Let us take heed that we do not become so swallowed up in service that we fail to wait upon God for spiritual enduement and refreshing. Nothing can take the place in the Church of a Spirit-filled ministry and Spirit-filled leadership.

The Smiting Sin

"I imagine that when we get to heaven the sin that will smite us most, as we look back over our earthly pilgrimage, will be our prayerlessness; that we counted it a weariness, and we have gone to sleep saying our prayers, and we have found no time for our prayers and we have not believed very much in prayer, and we have prayed little Lilliputian prayers when we might have prayed great, world-shaking prayers."

—Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery.

My Bible

A Book that exposes me to myself, that tells me all that is in my heart, that lays bare the very deepest moral springs of my nature, that judges me thoroughly, and at the same time reveals to me One who meets my every need—such a Book carries its own credentials with it. It craves not, and needs not, letters of commendation from man. It stands in no need of his favor, in no dread of his wrath.

Dare to Believe, Then Command

Evangelist Smith Wigglesworth

ERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto My Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in My name, I will do it." John 14:12-14.

Jesus is speaking here, and the Spirit of God can take these words of His and make them real to us. "He that believeth on Me... greater works than these shall he do." What a word! Is it true? If you want the truth, where will you get it? "Thy word is truth," Christ said to the Father. When you take up God's Word you get the truth. God is not the author of confusion or error, but He sends forth His light and truth to lead us into His holy habitation, where we receive a revelation of the truth like unto the noon day in all its clearness.

The Word of God works effectually in us as we believe it. It changes us and brings us into new fellowship with the Father, with the Son, and with the Holy Spirit, into a holy communion, into an unwavering faith, into a mighty assurance, and it will make us partakers of the very nature and likeness of God as we receive His great and exceeding precious promises and believe them. Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. Faith is the operative power.

We read that Christ opened the understanding of His disciples, and He will open up our understanding and our hearts and will show us wonderful things that we should never know but for the mighty revelation and enlightenment of the Spirit that He gives to us.

I do not know of any greater words than those found in Rom. 4:16, "Therefore "It is of faith, that it might be by grace." Grace is God's benediction coming right down to you, and when you open the door to Him—that is an act of faith—He does all you want and will fulfill all your desires. "It is of faith, that it might be by grace." You open the way for God to work as you believe His Word, and God will come in and supply your every need all along the way.

Our Lord Jesus said to His disciples and He says to us in this passage in the 14th of John, "You have seen Me work and you know how I work. You shall do the very same things that I am doing, and greater things shall you do, because I am going to the Father, and as you make petition in My name I will work. I will do what you ask, and by this the Father shall be glorified."

Did any one ever work as He did? I do not mean His carpentering. I refer to His work in the hearts of the people. He drew them to Him. They came with their needs, with their sicknesses, with their oppression, and He relieved them all. This royal Visitor, who came from the Father to express His love, talked to men, spent time with them in their homes, found out their every need. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil, and He said to them and He says to us, "You see what I have been doing, healing the sick, relieving the oppressed, casting out demons. The works that I do shall ye do also." Dare you believe? Will you take up the work that He left and carry it on?

"He that believeth on Me!" What is this? What does it mean? How can just believing bring these things to pass? What virtue is there in it? There is virtue in these words because He declares them. If we will receive this word and declare it, the greater works shall be accomplished. This is a positive declaration of His, "He that believeth on Me, greater works than these shall he do," but unbelief has hindered our progress in the realm of the spiritual.

Put away unbelief. Open your heart to God's grace. Then God will come in and place in you a definite faith. He wants to remove every obstruction that is in the world before you. By His grace He will enable you to be so established in His truth, so strong in the Lord and in the power of His might, that whatever comes across your path to obstruct you, you can arise in divine power and rebuke and destroy it.

It is a matter of definite and clear understanding between us and God. To recognize that Christ has a life force to put into us, changes everything that we dare to believe it will change. He that believes that Jesus is the Christ overcomes the world. Because we believe that Jesus is the Christ, the essence of divine life is in us by faith and causes a perfect separation between us and the world. We have no room for sin. It is a joyful thing for us to be doing that which is right. He will cause that abundance of grace to so flow into our hearts that sin shall not have dominion, nor sickness, nor affliction. "He that believeth"—he that dares to believe—he that dares to trust—will see victory over every oppression of the enemy.

A needy creature came to me in a meeting, all withered and wasted. He had no There was absolute death in his hope. eyes. He was so helpless he had to have some one on each side to bear him up. He came to me and said in a whisper, "Can you help me?" Will Jesus answer? "He that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these. . . . Behold, I give you power . . . over all the power of the enemy." These are the words of our Lord Jesus. It is not our word but the word of the Lord, and as this word is in us He can make it like a burning passion in us. We make the Word of God as we believe it our own. We receive the Word and we have the very life of Christ in us. We become supernatural by the power of God. We find this power working through every part of our

Now Christ gives us something besides faith. He gives us something to make faith effectual. Whatsoever you desire, if you believe in your heart you shall have. Christ said, "Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye re-ceive them, and ye shall have them." Mark 11:22-24. Whatsoever he saith! Dare to say in faith and it shall be done. These things have been promised by Christ and He does not lie.

This afflicted man stood before me help-less and withered. He had had cancer in his stomach. The physicians had operated upon him to take away the cancer from the stomach, but complications had arisen with the result that no food could enter the man's stomach. He could not swallow anything. So in order to keep him alive they made a hole in his stomach and put in a tube about nine inches long with a cup at the top, and he was fed with liquid through this tube. For three months he had been just kept alive but was like a skeleton.

What was I to say to him? "If thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God."

Here was the word of Christ, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go tinto My Father." The Word of God is truth. Christ is with the Father and grants us our requests, and makes these things manifest, if we believe What should I do in the presence of a case like this? "Believe the Word." So I believed the Word which says, "He shall have whatsoever he saith." Mark 11:23. I said, "Go home, and have a good supper." He said, "I cannot swallow." "Go home, and have a good supper," I repeated. "On the authority of the Word of God I say it. Christ says that he that believes that these things which he says shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he says. So I say, Go home in the name of Jesus, and have a good supper."

He went home. Supper was prepared. Many times he had had food in his mouth but had always been forced to spit it out again. But I dared to believe that he would be able to swallow that night. So that man filled his mouth full as he had done before, and because some one dared to believe God's Word and said to him, "You shall have a good supper in the name of Jesus," when he chewed his food it went down in the normal way into his stomach, and he ate until he was quite satisfied.

He and his family went to bed filled with joy. The next morning when they arose they were filled with the same joy. Life had begun again. Naturally he looked down to see the hole that had been made in his stomach by the physicians. But God knew that he did not want two holes, and so when God opened the normal passage He closed the other hole in his stomach. This is the kind of God we have all the time, a God who knows, a God who acts, and brings things to pass when we believe. Dare to believe, and then dare to speak, and you shall have whatsoever you say if you doubt not.

A woman came to me one night and inquired, "Can I hear again? Is it possible for me to hear again? I have had several operations and the drums of my ears have been taken away." I said, "If God has not forgotten how to make drums for ears you can hear again." Do you think God has forgotten? What does God forget? He forgets our sins, when we are forgiven, but He has not forgotten how to make drums for ears.

Not long ago the power of God was very much upon a meeting that I was holding. I was telling the people that they could be healed without my going to them. If they would rise up I would pray and the Lord would heal. There was a man who put up his hand. I said, "Cannot that man rise?" The folks near him said he could not, and lifted him up. The Lord healed him, the ribs that were broken were knit together again and were healed.

There was such faith in the place that a little girl cried out, "Please, gentleman, come to me." You could not see her, she was so small. The mother said, "My little girl wants you to come." So I went down there to this child, who although fourteen years of age was very small. She said with tears streaming down her face, "Will you pray for me?" I said, "Dare you believe?" She said, "O yes." I prayed and placed my hands on her head in the name of Jesus.

"Mother," she said, "I am being healed. Take these things off—take them all off." The mother loosed straps and bands and then the child said, "Mother, I am sure I am healed. Take these off." She had straps on her legs and an iron on her foot about 3½ inches deep. She asked her mother to unstrap her. Her mother took off the straps. There were not many people with dry eyes as they saw that girl walk about with legs just as normal as when she was born.

God healed her right away. What did it? She had cried; 'Please, gentleman, come to me," and her longing was coupled with faith. May the Lord help us to be just like a simple child.

God has hidden these things from the wise and prudent, but He reveals them to babes. There is something in childlike faith in God that makes us dare to believe, and then to act. Whatever there is in your life that is bound, the name of Jesus and the power of that name will break it if you will only believe. Christ says, "If ye shall ask any thing in My name, I will do it." God will be glorified in Christ when you receive the overflowing life that comes from Christ in response to your faith.

Dare to believe. Do you think that truth is put into the Word to mock you? Don't you see that God really means that you should live in the world to relieve the oppression of the world? God answers us that we shall be quickened, be molded afresh, that the Word of God shall change everything that needs to be changed, both in us and in others, as we dare to believe and as we command things to be done. "Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith."

and cleave it in the center. Zech. 14:4.

If a mountain will crumble, quake, divide, part asunder, under the pressure of His feet, what man will be able to withstand those eyes which are as a flame of fire? Or who will be able to stand before that countenance that shineth like the sun in His strength, or withstand the sharp, two-edged sword that proceedeth out of His mouth?

"Then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 24:30. To the majority of the world it will be a sad sight to see Christ coming in power and great glory. They are robbing Him of His glory now, of His deity and Godhead. He was crucified in the flesh. They mocked Him. They disrobed Him. And it has been kept up ever since. They deprive Him of His deity in college and pulpit. They are disrobing Him and mocking Him, and as a consequence they will be surprised, shocked, horrified, when they see Him coming in power and great glory. Their surprise will be turned into mourning, a mourning which has come too late, to be followed by perpetual night.

Wherefore, "learn a parable of the fig tree; when its branch is yet tender, and Wherefore, "learn a parable of the fig tree; when its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh." As you see the fig tree budding you may know the event is within reasonable, measurable distance.

Wedlock

There is no place of privilege given either to the man or the woman. The union between them is to be such that each is the master of the other. Thus comes true happiness. The world laughs at what it thinks "the old bachelor, Paul," had to say about marriage. The world reads, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands: as the Church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything." Eph. 5:22, 24. This is all the world sees and says it is not fair. If they would read one verse more the picture would be changed. For though it is true that to the woman is given as standard for her love the highest type of human love, that of the Church for Christ, to the man an even higher standard of love is given. For to the man is written, "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it." No woman will have any difficulty in submitting to a man who would be willing to be crucified for her.—Revelation.

Sanctification

The essence and fulness of the sanctified life is Christ Himself who has been enthroned by the Spirit and who lives His own life in and through us. The life most fully sanctified is the life which is most like His. Paul bore testimony to this along with his claim to the fact of his death on the cross with Christ, stating "nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me."

I am crucified with Jesus,
And the cross hath set me free;
I have risen again with Jesus,
And He lives and reigns in me.

This the secret of the holy, Not our holiness but Him; Jesus! empty us and fill us, With Thy fulness to the brim.

The Work of Prayer

Prayer is not the foe to work. It does not paralyze activity. It works mightily. Prayer itself is the greatest work. The lazy man does not, will not, cannot pray, for prayer demands energy. Paul calls it a striving, an agony. With Jacob it was a wrestling. With the Syrophenician woman it was a struggle which called into play all the higher qualities of the soul, and which demanded great force to meet. . . The energy for work, the mastery over self, the deliverance from fear, all spiritual results and graces, are much advanced by prayer.—Purpose in Prayer.

The Maniac Who Became a Soul Winner

A True Story by George S. McCune

IFTY-FIVE years ago missionary work was started in Korea. Today there are more Christians in Korea than there were in the Roman Empire a century after the Church was started.

Today there are over four hundred thousand Protestant Christians in Korea. It is wonderful what God has done. During the last six-years our church has increased its total roll by 75%.

There are five main factors which have contributed to such a growth and they are: The Bible, prayer, witnessing—every individual getting busy to win some other soul—the fourth is, giving, and the fifth is looking for the return of our Lord Tesus Christ.

First, the Bible has been the greatest factor that has brought about these results in Korea. We have taught the Word of God and the Koreans believe it from the beginning of Genesis to the end of Revelation. They love the Word of God. Let me take you to a church where I served as pastor. I had fourteen churches and then this church was thrust upon me with its two thousand members. I was asked to take the church because the pastor was in jail and all of the elders were in jail. So we went to jail and there before the chief of police we held a board meeting; the moderator led in prayer, one of the elders made a motion that I should take over the church until they could return. Some haven't returned yet. They were not bad men; they were Christians. That is a record that goes into history. A man in Korea has a poor chance of proving he is a Christian unless he can give positive evidence that he has been in jail at least once for the gospel. I have been there five times.

But go with me to this church on Sunday morning. At eight o'clock the children gather together to study the Word of God. They take their Bibles. The night before, the teacher has been pre-paring the lesson to be given to the children and now they are gathered; each child has brought some other child. You will find about two hundred children present who are not yet Christians brought in by children of the Sunday School. After that School has disbanded -because the church is too small to have the entire School-the men gather. Some of them are bankers in the city, some outstanding business men-and they are all there to study the Word Then they dismiss and younger group gathers to study the Bible and after they go, the women of the church come. The men are home by that time and they take care of the babies, thus allowing their wives to go to Sunday School. Every Christian in Sunday School in Korea studies the Word of God. Then in the afternoon we have a regular preaching service.

One service which I conducted not very long before I left the field stands out in my memory, and yet this was nothing unusual. Just after the sermon one old lady got up and said, "You don't mean to say you have finished."

"Yes, I have finished all I had to say."

"But that was only a taste. Give us some more." So I continued to talk for another hour on being prepared for the coming of the Lord.

In the evening, even though we may be having a heavy rain, every Christian is present; in fact, every Christian is in every service. Then on Wednesday night we have our mid-week prayer meeting and what a joy it is to find a rush for the front seats at the Wednesday evening prayer service. At the time the World Sunday School Convention was in progress in Japan I took one of the leading men with me to the prayer service and when he found there were about two thousand people present he said, "What is going on here?" He thought I was playing some trick on him, but I assured him it was simply a regular Wednesday night prayer meeting. He could not believe that this was a usual thing, so I took him to five other churches and every one of them was packed on Wednesday night. Seeing is believ-ing. They love to study the Word of God.

Last year we started what we called Bible Study Conferences in which more than two thousand Koreans enrolled, some walking one hundred miles to one of these conferences to study the Word of God. This Word is God's message and they want to know it so they may feed upon it and give it to others. The Word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword.

The second factor in the growth of the work is prayer. When I first went to Korea I had graduated from College and had done considerable work in America. I knew the Lord had saved me and washed away my sins and I wanted to go out and tell others this glorious message. But there were certain things I didn't believe were possible through prayer and I had to go to Korea to have my eyes opened. Just a little over a year ago I witnessed a wonderful miracle. A group was gathered for prayer, depending upon God's power to cast out demons. Some time before that a man had come to the church with another man strapped to his back. He

THE BLOOD OF CHRIST

The blood of Christ-it binds all heaven with its many mansions and throngs without number, in holy and indissoluble security. My soul, seek no other stream in which to drown thy leprosy. My hands, seek no other task with which to prove thy energy. I would be swallowed up in Christ. I would be nailed to His cross. O my Jesus! my Saviour! Thy heart did burst for me, and all its sacred blood flowed for the cleansing of my sin. I need it every day. I need it more and more.-Joseph Parker.

was screaming-the wild maniac that he I was called to the church and I found this maniac in the church yard. I stood as near the gate as possible. He had killed many people and burned a number of houses and was a terror to the whole community. Some of the heathen had brought him and what a challenge he was to the church of Christ! "Your Bible says that Jesus cast out demons and greater things than these shall you do, so we have brought him here to you Christians that you might ask God to perform a miracle," said those who brought him.

As I looked at this wreckage of humanity I thought, "Well, I have prayed for many things and have had wonderful answers to prayer, but I just do not have the gift of casting out demons." I tried to pray in faith but I got frightened. But those Christians held on to God for him and would not give up. I asked one of the doctors once, "What can you do with such cases?" and the doctor replied, "We cannot do anything. We let the Christians tend to them. Those are cases we cannot

The next Sunday I was to preach in the church and when I arrived I found this man right in front of the platform. I knew it would be just like him to screech right out in the middle of the service. I prayed that God would give me courage to endure. So I preached the sermon while some of the Christians carefully watched him and he never said one word after we got started. Our people stood with that man night and day, all believing for a miracle. When I joined them in prayer one time I said to the man, "Name the devils that are in you," and he screamed out and said, "A great company of devils! Legion!" Then in answer to prayer he got better possession of his tongue and used it to repeat Scripture and even to sing hymns and pray. Two weeks from that time he came to my house to say good-bye to me as he was going out into the country.

Eight months later I was in his territory and while walking along the road I saw a man come running toward me. He didn't have any hat and to be out in the public road without a hat and running, was certroad without a nat and fulfilling, was certainly not like a Korean. I looked closer and recognized this man and I at once thought, "Oh the devils have evidently gotten back into him." Well, he came up and with beaming face said, "Oh if it had not been for the Christ of God I should still be a raving maniac!"

A little later I received him into the church. As a token of appreciation he gave me two chickens and two rabbits from his meager possessions. And what do you suppose I discovered? From his community I took 62 others into the church. Before that there had not been one Christian in that entire community but God had worked through this one man who had been so marvelously delivered in answer to prayer, and he became a vessel of God and was the means of leading 62 others to know Jesus. A year from that time he was baptized and today he is an elder in the church and I know positively that he has led 267 souls to the Lord Jesus. Christ. And all through that one miracle that God performed in answer to the united prayer of those Christians.

The third factor in the growth of the work is that every Christian in Korea is an evangelist. Wouldn't it be wonderful if every member in our churches was an evangelist? It is the task of every Christian to win some one else to Christ. And it has been the fact that the Word of God has been given out by every Christian that has brought about the results in Korea. After fifteen years of work, the Christians there have answered the last command of the Lord Jesus and gone into other nations with the gospel. They sent a missionary over into Shantung Province, China, and today there are two thousand souls that the Lord has given them as their hire. In Manchuria there are twenty thousand Christians; in Siberia there are forty-seven churches among the Christians who speak the Russian language. These were wiped out but some are coming back. A missionary from China told me that two of his best evangelists were Koreans and the same report came from a missionary in Burma.

Many of our Korean Christians have been severely persecuted; some bear the marks of the Cross on their backs but they love that cross; they love the Word, and they love the Lord Jesus who died for And I sometimes think, that if America should forsake God, He will have His people in the nations around the world outside of America and outside of Europe and perhaps the time will come when they will come here and put us back on the right track. Let us pray for the church in these other nations for they are enduring much persecution.

Which Way Is Yours?

"Tigers and monsters, are you also become devils to torment me? Would you give me the prospect of heaven to make my hell more intolerable?" screamed Sir Francis Newton on his death bed. Hearing his ravings some of his friends had asked if he would have some one pray for him, whereupon he cried out in the lurid language I have just set down. He had been reared a Christian, but had allowed himself to become the companion of wicked men. Stricken with an incurable disease after having lived a corrupt life professing to be an infidel, he cried out in the bitterness of his soul:

"What argument is there now to assist me against matters of fact? Do I assert that there is no hell, while I feel one in my own bosom? Am I certain there will be no after retribution, when I feel present judgment? Do I affirm that my soul is as mortal as my body, while my body languishes and my soul is as vigorous as ever? Wretch that I am, whither shall I flee from this breast?"

His voice failed, but as his spirit was leaving his body he cried out with inexpressible horror, "Oh, the insufferable pangs of hell!"

That is one way-many seem to choose it.

When it looked to those about him in the center of Africa, as if the noted missionary Charles T. Studd might be about to cross over, Mr. Williams said to him, "Do you think you will leave us this time?" At first he said he didn't know, then he said, "Very likely." this time?"

From that moment onwards there was no question about it-he ceased trying to talk about anything, and with each little breath he could spare he could only say, "Hallelujah! Hallelujah!" It was amazing to see him passing out like thisquite conscious all through and just "Hallelujah," coming with every breath he had. They could not make out his other words properly, because of the weakness of his voice, but the "Hallelujah!" none could mistake. Even the natives around the bed could hear this. At about 7 p. m. he seemed to lapse into unconsciousness, and shortly after 10:30 p. m. he passed to his reward.

That is the other way-I thank God some are going that way.

There is a way that is narrow or strait, and there is another way that is broad, and many walk in that popular broad way.

"Choose ye this day" in which way you will walk, to what sort of an end you will come, to what eternal abode you will go

Any one, any one, ANY ONE who does not want to keep on in the way in which he is, can change to the other way. It all depends on what he does with Jesus, who says, "Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out." When a sinner comes to Jesus he is rewarded by having his feet safely placed in the narrow way that leads to God and heaven.

Is he in the narrow way, and, seeing the allurements of sin, wants to enjoy himself to the full in this world without regard to the eternal consequences? He has but to enter freely into sin, and make it plain to the Lord Jesus that he wants no more of the Christ way. He will be given his choice. He will have the pleasures of sin for a season, and then-. Listen to Peter as he says, "Repent and be baptized every one of you." Do it today, now while you still hold this paper in your hands. "He will come and save you." ---C. E. R.

NO UNCERTAINTY

The late Dr. John B. McFerrin, of the Southern Methodist Church, was lying on his death-bed. His son, who had charge of a circuit twenty miles away, was reluctant to leave his dying father when Saturday came. Whereupon the venerable minister said, "My son, you had better fill your appointment tomorrow. If, while you are away, I should happen to drop off, you know where to find me."

CUBA'S NEED

Noel Perkin, Missionary Secretary

Cuba with its population of over four million one hundred thousand people has for many years been largely neglected in our Assemblies of God missionary program, but we are happy to report there are now eleven assemblies and some five hundred believers, many of whom have received the Pentecostal Baptism.

The four assemblies in Havana have enthusiastic companies of believers which, while not so many in numbers, are rich in spiritual blessing, and we believe there is reason to expect them to continue to grow in numbers and experience.

Passing over five hundred miles to the eastern end of the island, we have groups of believers in a number of places. The towns in this section show, if anything, an even deeper interest in the gospel than the city folk. In the town of Candonga an open-air meeting was held and a large interested crowd gathered to listen to the gospel songs, the music of the piano accordions, and the lively testimonies of the believers.

After the open-air meeting, the people were invited to attend a gospel service in the home of one of the believers. The house was crowded out in a short time and, through the wide open doors, the crowd extended as far into the street as the people could still see and hear what was going on.

When asked what other Protestant church or mission was in that section the people said, "None." Later they acknowledged that there were some denominational churches in near-by towns, but that at least eight towns within easy reaching distance were entirely without any gospel witness. This condition is prevalent throughout the island.

A crowd of interested people accompanied the missionaries to the railroad depot to show their good will and desire for further meetings.

Many Opportunities Open

Every town through which we passed had radios blaring away and we feel this means could be made a medium for reaching the people with the gospel. We are therefore planning a weekly broadcast of thirty minutes from Havana which will reach to every part of the island. Too, we are planning to help our missionaries publish an attractive little paper with a full gospel message which will be widely distributed.

We also are seeking to raise funds for a station wagon with loud-speaker equipment to use for street meetings in towns and communities where little of the gospel is being preached. God's commission is "to every creature" and we believe, by this means, we shall go a long way toward fulfilling the command of our Lord for Cuba.

Already some friends are responding with offerings for the gospel car so that it is one-fourth paid for, but we need about six hundred dollars more. We also have received an offering for half the cost of the paper and broadcast, but about ten dollars more per month is needed for the paper, and about fifteen dollars more per month for the broadcast.

There are a number of fine young men preparing for the ministry in our little Bible school in Havana who can be maintained for about six dollars a month. Also, there are several native preachers who are doing pioneer work and need about ten dollars each a month to meet their needs.

The Missions Department will gladly supply pictures of workers or students, and information concerning any of these needs.

CUBAN WORK MOVING FORWARD

Mrs. W. L. Perrault writes of the visit of Brother Noel Perkin, Missionary Secretary, to Cuba, and his busy days there. "We are very grateful to God for the visit of our Missionary Secretary, Noel Perkin, to this field. During the ten days of his stay here he was kept going constantly from one mission and conference to another, but through and over all was the visible token of the approval of God.

"On the first morning of our conference the glory of God so filled the chapel of the Bible Institute where we were that we could do nothing but praise Him, and one of our students was gloriously filled with the Holy Ghost.

"Naturally the enemy was not much pleased, and quite a crowd gathered outside, wondering what was going on. Two days later a policeman arrived to investigate! But, upon finding that we had a regular permit for services, he made no further inquiry.

"Night after night Brother Perkin and Brother Perrault conducted services in the various assemblies. One dear old Jamaican sister received a blessed experience with God as the Holy Spirit came in to fill her. In another place the workers were almost literally crowded out of the room, Brother Perrault interpreting for Brother Perkin while standing with one foot on either side of a small boy sitting on the floor. Many hands were raised for prayer, and some sought to know more of God's wonderful plan of salvation.

"Preparations are being made for radio services on short wave. As soon as the schedule is definite, announcement will be made in the Evangel so that friends at home may tune in. We are sure you would recognize the old gospel hymns, and we should like to know something about the reception of these stations.

Gospel Paper and Bible Institute

"We are glad to report that our Cuban paper is now to be published monthly and we shall be proud to send it forth with its message of the full gospel, salvation, healing, the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, and the glad tidings of the soon return of our King.

"The young people of the Bible Institute are making fine progress. They have been arising early in the morning to pray for the Holy Spirit, The result has been a richness in their experience and an anointing upon their lives.

"Our greatest material need at present is for a permanent home for the Bible Institute. We are very much cramped in our present quarters, and are unable to be really free in prayer because of the continual vigilance of the police and the complaints of neighbors whose houses touch ours on each side.

"Another need is for a light gospel truck in which to carry the message of life to the many little villages and towns off the main highways. Such a car would make it possible for us to carry our instruments and the students out to evangelize many places throughout the island. God has already touched the hearts of some at home, and a part of the necessary funds has come in. Please pray that He will meet all the need that His Name may be glorified.

"Any offerings for these needs, the gospel paper, broadcasts, gospel truck or the Bible Institute should be clearly designated as such and sent to Noel Perkin, Missionary Secretary, 336 West Pacific Street, Springfield, Mo."

"This increase in personnel certainly means much to us, and enables each one of our stations to have one or two added workers. Even though all the stations are not fully manned this will enable us to make quite an increase in our activities during the coming year.

"We are certainly thanking God for these who have come to 'stand in the gap' and we are praying that the Lord will thrust forth still more workers for this field.

Fine Native Meetings

"Truly the Lord has been good to us whereof we are glad. We were especially blessed during the time of our native gathering a few weeks ago. The attendance was the largest yet, and the blessing of the Lord was present.

"A number received definite experiences of salvation, and several were gloriously filled with the blessed Holy Spirit. It would have been a blessing to you all, we are sure, to have witnessed the joy and enthusiasm with which the people came with their gifts and offerings unto the Lord. This year's offering was by far the largest ever received.

step for unity among all the assemblies was taken.

This great field of Brazil is opening more and more for the reception of God's Word. Brother Boyer tells of passing through the town of Recife on the night when more than one hundred received water baptism. In another city, fifty-eight were baptized.

Two have recently been saved in Camocim, and one baptized in the Spirit in Granja; and even greater advance has been made in Crateus and Poty.

Let us remember to pray earnestly that God will call forth more Spirit-filled workers to take advantage of the doors that are opening.

BRIEF NOTES FROM NEAR AND FAR

God has been moving among the young people here. Some young men have been saved, and both young men and young women have seen the need of Pentecost and have been seeking God for the Baptism. One man was gloriously filled and received a call into the ministry at the time of receiving the Spirit.

We are looking to God to help us train these young lives until they are fit vessels of service. We trust that some will go into full time ministry as the Lord leads them.—Derrick Hillary.

be a time of profit in the things of God. His presence was there in special blessing; and, although serious problems had to be faced, God worked them all out even in ways of which we had not thought.

These people are surely hungry for the Lord—some of them came from our farthest outstation, one hundred and twenty-five miles away. On the very first night of the conference the people prayed almost all night, and this was repeated every night thereafter.

One old man became very sick with a high fever, but was fully recovered in a short time. It is marvelous to see how these people take up the burden of prayer in times of illness.

In spite of terrific heat and dust, hunger for God in the hearts of the people so overshadowed the natural handicaps that we can only praise God for His love and mercy.

Word has been received from E. Yngve Olson of their safe arrival in Barquisimeto Sunday evening February 25. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bender met them to help them with the details of their entering the country. Brother Olson reports that they are all well and happy.

Greece

Perhaps for the first time since the days of the apostles, God is again visiting Greece with a mighty revival. During our recent visit to the village of Sevasti fifteen souls were gloriously saved and over twenty filled with the Spirit.

Katerina was visited also and about eighteen received the Spirit and three were saved. After our visit to Salonika two were saved, and four brethren were baptized in the Spirit. We thank our wonderful God for His gracious visitation and pray that the spirit of revival will continue "until He come."—E. A. Dictos.

West China

An old man—over sixty—came to our services recently. Since then he has been coming regularly. We gave him a large-type New Testament and he tells us that he and his wife and children read it till late in the night. He now promises to take the step of accepting Jesus as soon as he can.

It seems that he is at the head of some custom or ritual and he says he can hardly get away from it until after a certain date has passed. We are praying for him and pleading with him not to wait, and trust that the Lord will mercifully draw him in before it is too late.—V. G. Plymire

™ SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Joash Restores the House of God Lesson for April 7. Lesson Text: 2 Kings 12:4-15.

When Joash as a babe was in danger of death at the hands of the wicked Queen Athaliah, he was sheltered in the House of God, which for six years became his home. Now that he was king, that same house desecrated at the command of Athaliah (2 Chron. 24:7), was in sad need of repair. Joash, inspired by a love for the building, brought about its repairs and the renewal of its old glories.

The Neglected House of God 2 Kings 12:4-6

The plan for its repair. Verse. 4-5. The priests were called together and commissioned to collect money for the repairing of the temple. Each priest would gather money "every man of his acquaintance," that is, from every one in his own particular locality. This money was to come from three sources: (1) "the money of every one that passeth the account"; that is, the half-shekel tax received from all males of twenty years and above at each time of census. Ex. 30:12-14. (2) "The money that every one is set at"; that is, the redemption price of persons who had dedicated themselves or their properties to the Lord and wished to secure their redemption. Num. 18:15, 16; Lev. 27:1-8. (3) "All the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the Lord"; that is, freewill offerings.

The failure of the plan. "But it was so that in the three and twentieth year of king Joash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house." Why did the plan fail? (1) The priests were negligent and lacked the zeal and enthusiasm necessary for the raising of funds, 2 Chron, 24:5. The lesson -we cannot do much for the advancement of God's kingdom unless our own hearts are fired with a burning love and zeal for God. We would not buy from a salesman who was not enthusiastic about what he was selling. Neither shall we be able to "sell" men and women on Jesus Christ unless we are "dead in love" with Him ourselves. (2) The people were none too sure that their money would be used for its designated purpose. (3) The priests put their own interests before the interests of God's house. They feared that the money which went for temple repairs would cause a reduction in what went for their own support and therefore cared little for the plan.

> The Restored House of God 2 Kings 12:7-16

Joash, seeing that his first plan had failed, revoked his former orders telling the priests to collect no more money from the people (Verses 7-8). Then he instituted a second plan which was carried out with great success.

Prudent arrangements. Verses 9-19. A large chest was placed beside the altar of burnt offerings which was in the court of the temple-a The people came to very conspicuous place. the gate of the court with their offerings, handed them to the priests who, in plain sight of the people, proceeded to the chest and dropped in When the chest was filled, the the money. king sent his own secretary and a scribe of the high priest to count the money. It was then handed over to overseers or contractors who directed the work of repairs and distributed the money to the masons and other workers.

Wise management. Verse 13. Funds were carefully managed. All unnecessary expense was avoided. No money was spent for interior decorations and repairs until the more essential outward repairs were effected,

Faithful workers. Verse 15. The overseers who were entrusted with the disbursement of funds were of such integrity and so conscientious that they were not called upon to give an account of the way they had used the money entrusted to

Practical Lessons

Putting God's interests first. The priests may have professed that God's interests were first in their lives, but their negligence in attending to the repairs of the house of God disproved their profession. Likewise, it is easy for us to claim that God's interests are first in our lives, but let us examine ourselves and see if it be really true. Is God first in—(1) Our devotional life.

GOD NEEDS ALL HANDS MISSIONS AMERICA They put up in bags, and told (counted) the money. The priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it. Ikings 12.9 I Kings 12:10 And they gave the money into the hands of them that did the work. I kings 12/11

> Do we give Him a proportionate amount of our time and fellowship? Or do we neglect Him for fellowship with others? (2) Our reading. Does the Word of God get as much attention as the newspaper, magazines, and religious literature? (3) Our thinking. Do most of our thoughts revolve around ourselves or around Christ? (4) Our decisions. Do we make our decisions to please Him or to please ourselves and others? Does His opinion of our actions mean more to us than the opinion others may have of those

"My God shall supply all your need." Phil. 4:19. The priests were not enthusiastic about collecting money for the repairing of the temple. Why? Because they were afraid this fund would cause a reduction in that which went toward their own support and the upkeep of the temple worship. Were their fears well grounded? No! Though a great deal of money was raised for the temple, there was still ample money for their needs. (See verse 16.) Many people today fail to give tithes and offerings to the Lord fearing that their own needs will not be met. Some pastors do not encourage missionary offerings fearing that their own needs and the needs of their church will not be met. Are such fears justified? No! God is no man's debtor. That which is given to Him will always be repaid! Look up the following scriptures and notice the many blessings which are promised as the reward of giving: Deut. 15:10; Psalm 41:1-3; Prov. 3:9-10; 19:17; 28:27; 2 Cor. 9:7-12.

Investment. A lady was filling a box for India when a child brought her a cent with which she bought a tract and put it in the box. It was at length given to a Burmese chief, and it led him to Christ. The chief told the story of his new God and his great happiness to his friends. They also believed and cast away their idols. A church was built there, a missionary was sent, and 1,500 converted from heathenism as the result of that little seed.

Guiding principles in Giving. In 2 Chron. 24:10 we are told that in response to Joash's freewill offering plan, "all the princes and the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest." Cheerfulness is one of the principles of acceptable giving. 2 Cor. 9:7. What are some of the others? 1. Giving should be worshipful and recognized as essentially an act of loving devotion to God. 2. Giving should be on a stewardship basis. We are not owners, but merely stewards of what we possess. 3. God should be first in our giving. We are to set aside God's portion first, not give Him what is left over if there be any. Prov. 3:9. 4. Giving should be systematic. Too often giving is spasmodic, dependent upon impulse, or governed by emotion, rather than the result of intelligent planning and a deeply fixed purpose. 5. Giving should be proportionate. Deut. 16:17; 1 Cor. 16:2. Giving should be in proportion to income and should increase as one's income increases. We are not under law and the New Testament nowhere specifically lays down an ascertained proportion of our income as one acceptable to the Lord. But if we truly respond to grace we will give at least one tenth. And after having given a tenth we will still say, "we done that which is our duty."—J. Bashford Bishop.

"BEHOLD! I COME QUICKLY"

ing House, Springfield, Mo.

Brother Lester Sumrall tells the following story, given in The Gospel Call: "While in a godly home in England, I was told the following story by the father. Early one morning his son, who was sleeping with him, suddenly awakened and exclaimed, 'Daddy, there are letters of fire written on the window.' The father tried to quiet him, 'You go back to sleep.' 'But Daddy, I can spell the letters of fire!' He spelled out the letters. The message was given in Latin. The father, being able to read Latin, translated the words as, 'Behold! I come quickly.'" Similar words of Jesus are recorded in Rev. 22:20. The same message is being emblazoned before the world today through startling "signs of the times." Surely the coming of the Lord is near. Are you read the meet Him? ready to meet Him?

PEACE IN FINLAND

The people of God rejoice that an agreement has been reached between Russia and Finland. Whatever our opinion as to the fairness of the peace terms, all who have prayed for peace should thank God that it has come and that the shedding of blood on both sides is ended.

BIBLES IN GERMANY

The demand for Bibles among German Protestants has increased 50 to 70 per cent every year since 1934, according to Die Furche, a Berlin publication, and ten times as many Biblical commentaries were printed last year as were printed five years ago.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

When the Catholic weekly America sent out questionnaires concerning war, they received replies from over 50,000 American students in Catholic colleges, thirty-six per cent of whom declared that they would be conscientious ob-jectors. Among the adults who replied, nearly two-thirds made a similar statement.

IN A TAX-SUPPORTED COLLEGE

It is reported that Bertrand Russell, one who approves companionate marriage and holds that Christianity has spoiled the "fine" ideas on purity taught by ancient paganism, has been secured by the New York Board of Education to teach the youth at the City College. This is the day that was prophesied, "after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth." 2 Tim. 4:3, 4.

PROVING GOD FOR A CENTURY

According to Dawn, the Hundredth Report of the Muller Orphanages records over $15,000,000 raised in the century, or an average of $150,000 a year, without a single advertisement or appeal or request for help, but by prayer only. As The Spectator said on the occasion of Muller's death, let him who doubts or denies the power of prayer attempt to raise the same sum, and that for orphans, by the same methods, but without prayer, and let him see what happens.

GERMANS KIND TO JEWS

There is a distinction between the Nazis and many of the German people, states The Jewish Chronicle. Recently many German soldiers in Poland have been sending home to their relatives presents such as wireless sets, pieces of furniture, clothing, linen, silver, and even pianos which they have looted from Jewish homes. Many families in Germany who receive such presents, however, are either returning them to Jewish neighbors or sending the equivalent of their value in money in the local Jewish Community, and sometimes these payments are accompanied by anonymous letters begging the Jews to forgive the wrongs which the Nazis are inflicting upon

A LONG-PLANNED HIGHWAY

A modern highway is being completed in the Near East which was prophesied many centuries ago. The Jerusalem correspondent of The Times (London) wrote in December: "Palestine will be only five hours by motor road from Cairo when the last twenty miles of the new 140-mile asphalt highway across the western edge of the Sinai Desert to Ismailia is completed. An army of 1,200 men have been busy all summer laying at the rate of a mile a day a black asphalt ribbon nineteen feet wide over sand dunes and stony desert. Thus the desert which was the scene of the Hebrews' forty years of traveling, which has from time immemorial interposed days of wearisome camel travel between Palestine and Egypt. will be subdued." God foretold the building of this road in Isa. 19:23—"In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria."

SNOW IN PROPHECY

The harshness of this winter and the heaviness of the snowfalls has not been without prophetic significance. In Job 38:22 the Lord speaks of "the treasures of the snow" which He has "reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war." The snow worked great hardship upon the Russians in their brutal attack against Finland.

AMONG THE DESPISED

The New Statesman says that during a lecture given a few months ago at the Vilna University in Poland by Professor Rudnicki, the Jews were attacked by other students, and the Professor asked them why they did not leave the Jews alone. "Because we are Christians," they replied. "If Christ had been alive to-day," he retorted, "He would have taken His seat with the Jews on the left side of the lecture room."

THE BOOK OF BOOKS

It has been estimated, says Christian Victory, that a grand total of almost 1,000,000,000 copies of Scripture have been sold the world over since Gutenberg printed the first Bible in 1448; and it is extraordinarily significant that of every thousand new books published, 650 are forgotten at the end of a year, 150 more at the end of three years, and only 50 survive for seven years: of fifty thousand publications of the seventeenth century, but 59 have been reprinted, and the same is true of the eighteenth century. After two thousand years the Bible remains the "best-seller" with no other remotely near it. The American Bible Society proclaims that now the Bible or Bible portions can be obtained in 1039 languages or dialects.

A HYMN OF BLASPHEMY

The following hymn appeared recently in the official magazine of Father Divine:

"Thou art the Author of Creation, Thou art the giver of life to all that live, Thou art the sun and its eternal rays, Thou art the king of the kingdom of heaven, Thou art the saviour of the saved, Thou art the omnipresent Christ and the true Christian, Thou art Omega, the finisher of creation, Thou art God."

The Bible warns us that false Christs shall arise in the last days. Matt. 24:24.

HUMANITY WITHOUT CHRIST

Antonio Diaz Soto y Gama is an attorney who forsook Christianity and was prominent in the Mexican Revolution. Today he has returned to Christianity, and in telling the reasons he says: "During the course of the revolution, I have been the witness of acts so monstrous, have been present at so many scenes of depravity and of violence, so many cataclysms in morality, in honesty, and in fortitude in the case of men who believed themselves great and strong because they had freed themselves from what they called fanaticism, that pondering on the origin of these disasters and of these surprises, I have been forced to see with my own eyes the cvidence that these catastrophes, these base acts, have been the result generally of the neglect of the morals of Christ and the repudiation of His teachings, which alone are able to bridle and guide human conduct." The attorney goes on to stress the need of teaching the children of Christ, saying that to drive Christ out of the consciences of children will create a generation of materialists and pagans entirely without moral basic principles, who will be the slaves of their worst passions and will make the world unfit to live in. How unspeakable will be conditions when Jesus has come and has taken His people away, and the spirit of lawlessness is set loose!

A MANIFESTO TO THE JEWS

Fifty-eight leading Fundamentalist preachers have signed a manifesto which condemns anti-Semitism. This manifesto, published in Sunday School Times, states: "Inasmuch as for some two or three years there has been carried on in our free country a persistent propaganda of Jewhatred: therefore we declare that we are opposed to anti-Semitism in whatever form it may take, as inconsistent with our heritage of liberty and fair play as citizens of America, and as unworthy of those who bear the name of Christian. And we further declare that any attempt to use the Scriptures as an excuse for an anti-Semitic attitude is a perversion of God's Word and irreconcilable with the spirit and teaching of the Lord Jesus Christ. We beseech every Christ-honoring child of God to show kindness to the Jew. Pray much for his salvation. How much he needs your prayers in these tragic days!" And this splendid manifesto goes on to express the debt we owe to the Jewish race for giving us our Saviour, and to anticipate the glady day when through a converted Israel the whole world will learn of salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ. Zech. 8:23.

THE FIRST CAKE

"Make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son." 1 Kings 17:13.

"Make first for me a little cake," Thus spake the prophet on that day; And as the widow heard his word, At once she hastened to obey.

Such meager store her barrel held-I wonder if she paused to see If truly there was meal enough To satisfy the hungry three.

Or did she blindly make the first An offering unto the Lord, Assured that plenty would remain According to the prophet's word.

One thing is sure-she made the cake, First for the prophet, then her own; A wondrous miracle we see-In oil and meal no lack is known.

"Make first for Me thy little cake"-A greater than Elijah's voice Now speaketh to thy waiting heart, Thou who dost crave God's highest choice.

"Make first of all thou dost possess A cake for Me, Thy Lord divine; Forget thy want, thy wish, thy will, Consider first the part that's Mine."

O reckless counting not the cost, The first and best all His to be; Thus know the joy of rich supply Today and thro' eternity.

PRAYER CORNER

"Laboring fervently . . . in prayer" MONDAY, APRIL 1-2 Kings 11:1-8.

Evidences multiply on every hand that we are pushing up into the last times. The spiritual warfare is intensifying. The powers of darkness are rallying and massing for the last awful conflict, knowing that their time is short. The Church of Christ has fallen on troublous times. She is being attacked by direct assault and by insidious encroachments. Alas that she is so ill prepared to meet the onslaughts of the foel She has one weapon with which to fight, and that lies largely neglected and forgotten. If the Church of Christ would but learn to pray, she would be victorious.

tory is inevitable.—Geo. Blackett.

Singapore, Straits Settlements—We have reopened a Sunday School among the Cantonese-speaking people of Singapore. Besides a Sunday School conducted there we also are holding an evening service. TUESDAY, APRIL 2-2 Kings 11:9-16.

In the beginning of the day seek God. Before speaking with loved ones or friends commune with God. To step into a new day with a radiant sense of the presence of God gives one a fortified heart. And this gives triumph over sin and selfishness. What spiritual poverty many Christians endure because of an unwillingness to take time for a divine tryst.—C. W. Grant.

Ouagadougou, Cote d'Ivorie, French West Africa—Among other things needed in the way of outfit and equipment as we return to the field is a car. Our present one has already traveled more than 58,000 miles so that it would not pay to take it to the field. The expense of taking things with us is much less than having it shipped to us later. We know that God is able to meet the need, and believe He will; but we also believe it is well to have others stand in prayer with us.—E. G. Chastagner (furlough) sailing very shortly.

Witwatersrand Mining Area, Transvaal, South Africa—Pray that a site may be secured for a new church for our compound men here on the East Rand, and that funds may be provided for the building. Pray for a young girl who is seeking the deeper things of God. We have been interested in her for several years, and she comes every week to Sister Pettenger for teaching in the Word of God. Continue to pray for two assemblies that need native pastors.—E. D. Pettenger.

Pasadena, California—Last week I posted four hundred letters to Jews in Brookline, Massachusetts containing the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, along with some suitable tracts for Jews. Please pray definitely that God will bless and use every one of them to the salvation of souls.—J. M. Perkins (retired from Liberia, West Africa).

Birthday-Arthur S. Erickson, Peru.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3-2 Kings 11:17-21.

'Mid all the traffic of the ways,— Turmoils without, within,—
Make in my heart a quiet place
And come and dwell therein;
A little place of mystic grace,
Of self and sin swept bare,
Where I may look upon Thy face
And talk with Thee in prayer.
—I. Oxenham

Lavras, Brazil, South America—Please pray that God will continue to baptize the believers here. Four have recently received, so be encouraged; God is answering your prayers. We also have a special unspoken request.—Lawrence N. Olson.

Callao, Peru—Please pray that the Lord will undertake for us in the many difficulties that always accompany long evangelistic trips of this nature and that He will bless the seed sown, that it may fall on good ground, will be watered and cared for and bring much fruit unto eternal life. Pray that we may be kept in health and in the Spirit and be made a blessing to thousands.—Hugh P. Jeter.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4-2 Kings 12:8.

A young Christian was struggling against the challenge to give generously to God's work. When she sought the advice of an older Christian friend, that friend said, "Remember, you never can out-give God. Do you suppose God ever will allow one of His children to say, 'God owes me something'? God is challenging you to give so that you can receive the greater blessing He has in store for you."—R. L. Decker.

Calcutta, India—Pray for our Bible School as it enters its second year, and for the young folk who recently have been saved, that they may be filled with the Holy Spirit.—Derrick Hillary.

Majra, Dehra Dun—The large cities of India are upon our hearts for the spread of the Pentecostal message. They are strategic centers for the work of the Lord. The Lord has given us a large tent, but physical health and strength is needed for such arduous campaigns. The harvest is great, so pray that God will give us health, strength, and guidance. Since coming here we find we cannot get along without a car. We have made two payments on a second-hand car and are trusting the Lord to see us through successfully to the end. Please pray that this need may be met.—J. H. Boyce.

Birthday—Mrs. E. Yngve Olson, Venezuela.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5-2 Kings 12:9-16.

The way some people complain about the church begging for money reminds us of a husband who was telling his friend, "I don't know what to do. My wife is hounding me constantly for money. All I hear is 'money, money' all the time. I fear I shall go broke." "What does she do with so much money?" asked his friend. "Oh," he replied, "I haven't given her any yet." Note the many parables in the New Testament that refer to money. Also the many verses in the Gospels that mention money. "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."—Sel.

Chin Hsien, Manchuria—Please pray that Mr. Shong, recently converted, will be completely delivered from the opium habit. His wife has been won through a weekly cottage meeting in a new section of our city.—Ruth Melching.

Harbin—Please join us in praises to God for the Holy Ghost fire which has now begun to fall in the Russian Pentecostal Church here, and pray that the blessing may continue.—A. Wingard.

Birthdays—Serena M. Hodges, Palestine; Hugh P. Jeter, Peru.

SATURDAY, APRIL 6-2 Kings 12-17-21.

We must not forget that there are three kinds of prayer—the asking, the seeking, and the knocking. Some things come by simply asking. Some things must be sought by deep heart-searching and the study of God's Word and listening to His voice for correction and direction. And then there are closed doors and hard hearts and Satanic barriers of opposition that must be opened and broken down by the dynamic force of Spirit-filled, united, and persevering prayer.—A. B. Simpson.

Chung Shaan, South China—Please pray for a Christian man here who is suffering with tuberculosis.—H. A. Park.

Lo Ping Hsien, Southwest China—The Lord has given us a few souls since we came here, but we ask you to pray with us that He will give us a mighty visitation of His power.—Glenn M. Horst.

Wei Hsi-Pray for three young girls, that God will save them.-Mary E. Lewer.

We thank God for answering prayer for Chi-pi-pa and setting him on fire for the Lord. Praise God for bringing the Lisu New Testaments through safely so that the Lisu people may read and study God's Word in their own language.—Leonard Bolton.

Birthdays—Mrs. H. A. Park, South China; Axel Oman, Sierra Leone; Carl Graves, Ceylon.

* * * * * SUNDAY, APRIL 7-2 Kings 12:4-12, 15.

Christ has given us the blessed privilege of serving Him as His friends. Dr. M. D. Babcock once spelled "love" thus, "L-O-Y-A-L-T-Y," and Christ asks us that we show our love for Him in our loyal support of and service to the church for which He gave His life; and to the spreading of His "Good News" to the ends of the earth. As we go into His sanctuary today, may it be in the spirit of co-operation and worship.—Day by Day.

Peking, North China—Pray for Brother Yang and family in Nanking and for an outpouring of the Spirit there.—W. W. Simpson.

Please pray for Mrs. Chao who is very sick with typhus, the third one in our school to take this disease. Please keep on praying for our school, that the Lord will have His way in our midst.—Emma Daechert.

Tsinan—We praise God for the souls who have surrendered to Jesus Christ. They need prayer that they may stand true and all receive the baptism with the Holy Spirit. Pray especially for the Christians who are now helping in the Lord's work. There are a number who go out on Monday and Wednesday doing visitation work and street evangelism. Pray that everlasting results will be forthcoming.—Helen Gustavson.

Birthday-Lawrence Borst, Fiji Islands.

EVANGELIZING AMONG MOSLEMS

The work of the American Christian Literature Society for Moslems, which is to spread the gospel among Mohammedans by the printed page, is progressing in Iran, Egypt, and India unhindered by the Governments, reports Alliance Weekly. However, since Italy moved in, some restrictions are being put upon their publications in Albania, and prayer is requested. The situation is worse in Turkey where all their religious books were temporarily confiscated by the police and where the printing of newly translated Christian books is being held up. There is need for much prayer if Moslems in these lands are to receive the gospel.

DYING JOY

When Samuel Rutherford was dying he said, "I am in the happiest pass to which man ever came. Christ is mine, and I am His; and there is nothing now between me and resurrection, except—Paradise."

REPORTS FROM REAPERS

WELLINGTON, TEXAS-We have just closed a successful week's meeting here. B. H. Givens is the pastor. Seven were is the pastor. Seven were saved or reclaimed, and one received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.—Evangelist and Mrs. M. C. Cox, Route 2, clo Orvil Smith, Groesbeck, Texas.

AKRON, OHIO-We recently enjoyed a 10-days' meeting with Marie Brown and Norma Schwalbe, Milwaukee, Wis. Several sought the Lord for salvation. The weather was cold; but the soul-stirring messages gripped the hearts of the people, and the saints were built up in the most holy faith. -Albert L. Clause, Pastor.

PORT ANGELES, WASH.-We have enjoyed a successful revival and have witnessed the best interest and blessing we have seen for a long time. Eva Billy Roberts was anointed of God Evangelist spoke to the congregation from night to spoke to the congregation from night to night. We had the privilege of seeing hu gry souls come forward to give their hearts to God, and best of all, these people are still going on and manifesting a desire to continue in the faith,—W. FORTUNA, CALIF.-About 4 weeks ago, we closed a revival with Brother and Sister Lafferty. God was with us from the start of the meetings. About knelt at the altar for salvation, and in spite of the rain and stormy weather, some nights the church was almost full.

We also had a wonderful Fellowship meeting here on February 26. Some said it was the largest crowd ever known to attend a meeting in Fortuna. Brother Lafferty, of Live Oak, brought the afternoon message on the subject, "What People Think of Pentecost." God was in that service in such a way that one could just feel the waves of glory. The

C. A. rally at 6:30 p. m. was precious. A number of young people rededicated their lives at the altar before the regular service. Brother Rowe, of Fruitland, brought the evening message, and all seemed to go home blessed.—Carl R. Tuck-

MONTROSE, COLO.-The Lord blessed in a successful 21/2 weeks' revival, Paul Boyer, Evangelist. We had good crowds every night and some nights we were packed out in the new portable tabernacle. Several knelt at the altar for salvation and many prayed through victory, some of whom were men 40 to 62 years of age and heads of families. Sunday School attendance reached a new high of 140. A lady has given us two corner lots on which to build a church and some money has come in to fund.—T. P. Johnson, Pastor. in to the church

Four or five Divine Healing and revived. and revived. Four of nive Divine fleating services proved the power of God to heal and to save. Two of these services were especially blessed when 20 or more were slain under the power of God. Definite healings were testified to after each Divine Healing service.

No accurate count was kept of the number saved or baptized with the Spirit. One entire family of ten came to Jesus. Many were filled with the Holy Ghost. About 20 united with the church, and the last Sunday the pastor baptized 32 in water. One good feature of the meeting was the dedication of a large prayer room in the basement. Many declare this to be the best revival in the church in three or four years.—Paul V. Jones, Pastor.
